A Great Saving Boys' Clothing on

It is a rare thing at practically the heart of the season to be able to buy Children's Clothing at one-third less than its original price. You may choose any FANCY SUIT in the house—any style or pattern, and no matter what the price on the ticket, deduct one-third and pay us the balance. One-third practically means half price elsewhere. On account of being makers we save you the two profits that all other dealers necessarily have to pay-that's the manufacturer's and jobber's profit.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

THE DIPLOMATIC DINNER AT WHITE HOUSE TONIGHT.

Recent Entertainments and Some of the Future-Timely Personal Notes.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt will entertain at dinner tonight the ambassadors, ministers and charge d'affaires of the diplomatic corps and their wives. Covers will be laid for seventy-two guests. As the quarantine against the Mexican embassy has been removed, the Ambassador and Madame Casusus will be present at this dinner, their first social appearance at the White House.

Senator and Mrs. Burrows gave an elegant dinner last night in honor of the Speaker and Miss Cannon. The other guests were the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Newberry, Representative and Mrs. Alden Smith, Representative and Mrs. Charles E. Townsend, Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Macdonald, Mrs. Andrews and Mr. W. E. Chandler.

The cabinet receptions yesterday afternoon were attended by hundreds of callers.
Mrs. Shaw received in the large parlor of the Arlington, and had the assistance of
Mrs. J. L. Simpson, Mrs. H. S. Reeside,
Mrs. Priestley, Miss Fountain, Miss Perie
Anderson and her guest, Miss Cassidy of East Orange, N. J., and Miss Doane of Boston. A huge bowl of lemonade and accompaniments of wafers, cakes and candies were an innovation for a cabinet reception, and evoked many pleasant comments.
Secretary Shaw was present the latter part Secretary Shaw was present the latter part

Mrs. Bonaparte received in her apartment at the Portland, where the company gathered completely filled the two rooms and hall at its disposal. Mrs. Bonaparte was assisted by Mrs. Rae, Mrs. Walcott, Mrs. Williams of Baltimore, Miss Maxwell and Miss Southerland.

Mrs. Metcalf was another of the cabinet hostesses surrounded by callers all the afternoon. Mrs. Bates and Miss Chabot were among her assistants.

The receptions at the home of the Vice President, of the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Interior were so large that K street seemed jammed with vehicles for the two blocks between Connecticut avenue and 16th street.

Owing to the death late yesterday afternoon in New York of Mr. Dwight Collier, brother of Mrs. Hitchcock, the home of the Secretary of the Interior is closed for the rest of the season. Mrs. Hitchcock held her usual reception yesterday and was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Sims and Miss Hitchcock, and Mrs. Nathan Sargent. The sad news came just before the dinner hour. Great sympathy has been extended the family in this bereavement.

Mrs. Taft was assisted by Mrs. Reyburn at her reception.

Mrs. Cortelyou was another of the hostesses kept busy from 3 o'clock in en-tertaining callers. Miss Hinds and several Miss Cannon, daughter of the Speaker, had one of the largest receptions of the day. Assisting her were Mrs. Samuel of Danville, Ill.; Mrs. J. L. Leose, Miss Tillinghast and Miss Palmer The first of the Bachelors' Cotillions this winter was danced at the New Willard last night. The decorations were of the elaborate description always seen at these balls, with red as the basis of the color scheme. The favors included a number of pretty trinkets, all tied with red ribbons, and there was, as usual, a flower favor. Mrs. John Davis received for the committee, of which the following are members: Maj. Charles L. McCawley, Mr. P. Lee Phillips, Maj. Montgomery Macomb. Mr. Reginald Huldekoper. Mr. J. M. Carlisle, Mr. William R. Hitt and Mr. George Howard. A number of dinners preceded the ball, arrivals to the latter being about eleven. Mr. and Mrs. Crosby S. Noyes will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary by a reception at the New Willard on the evening of Wednesday, January 24, from 8 to 11 o'clock, for which invitations have

Commander-in-chief Miller says in his first general order:

"In assumirg command of the United Spanish War Veterans, I am not unmindful of the preceding splendid administrations of Commanders-in-chief Megrew and English, and that to succeed them, keeping up the good work heretofore accomplished, calls for renewed energy and continued loyalty to the organization. May I bespeak from the comrades their hearty support and co-operation, admonishing them that this 's their organization, and that the commander in-chief is but their servant, seeking to beginning of an epoch in the world wide development of our nation, thrusting upon-all new responsibilities and duties, none the less patriotic in time of peace than were our services in time of war. Therefore, let us be ever mindful of our duty to our country as well as to ourselves, teaching as best we may love of country and good citizenship, for by these and these alone will our national greatness be preserved.

TRIBUTE TO FRANKLIN.

Local Printers to Celebrate Anniversary of His Birth.

Arrangements for the proposed Ben Franklin anniversary celebration by the printers of Washington are progressing satisfactorily. Editor T. M. Ring of the Trades Unionist, who is chairman of the general committee an arrangements, today gave a Star reporter the following official state-

"Columbia Typographical Union and the Ex-Delegates' Association of that organiza-tion will hold a public meeting on Frank-lin's birthday, Wednesday, January 17, at Masonic Temple, 5th and F streets, at 8 pm. "The committee in charge has engaged a number of prominent public men to make short addresses touching on conditions now confronting the typographical unions in the endeavor to secure the eight-hour day, and endeavor to secure the eight-hour day, and it is expected that a review of the life and public services of the great philosopher, statesman and printer whose two hundredth anniversary is being celebrated by printer societies throughout the country, will be dwelt on by some of the speakers."

A general invitation is to be extended to the public to be present.

At the regular meeting of Henry Wilson Post, No. 17, G. A. R., last evening the following named officers were installed to serve during the present official term: Commander, William H. Anderson; senior vice commander, John P. Wright; junior vice commander, James H. Barnes; quarter-master, James S. Thomas; surgeon, Thomas H. Pease; chaplain, William Turner; officer of the day, James Adams; officer of the guard, George H. Taylor; sergeant major, Samuel L. Burness; quartermaster sergeant,
